SEABCRU FLYING FOX WORKSHOP

SEABCRU FLYING FOX WORKSHOP

Who, What, Why?

Who?

Who?

23 participants

Who?

23 participants
7 countries

Who?

23   participants
7   countries
204 years of bat experience

Who?

23 participants
7 countries
204 years of bat experience
40 universities

Who?

23 participants
7   countries
204 years of bat experience
40 universities
24 non-profit organizations

Who?

23   participants
7   countries
204 years of bat experience
40   universities
24   non-profit organizations
9   government units

Who?

23   participants
7   countries
204 years of bat experience
40   universities
24   non-profit organizations
9   government units
3   private corporations

Who?

Population monitoring
Trade
Hunting
Pollination
Crop damage
Bats and disease
Ectoparasites
Capacity building
Outreach

Evolution
Systematics
Ecosystem services
Roost site protection
Conservation priorities
Human health
Disturbance
Knowledge gaps
Habitat
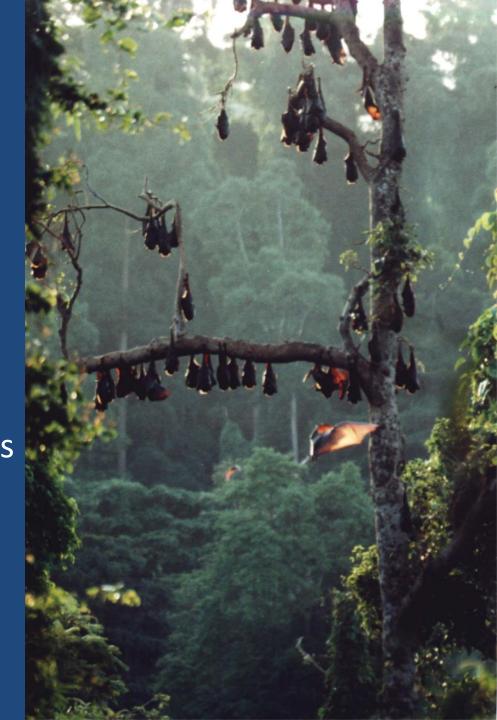

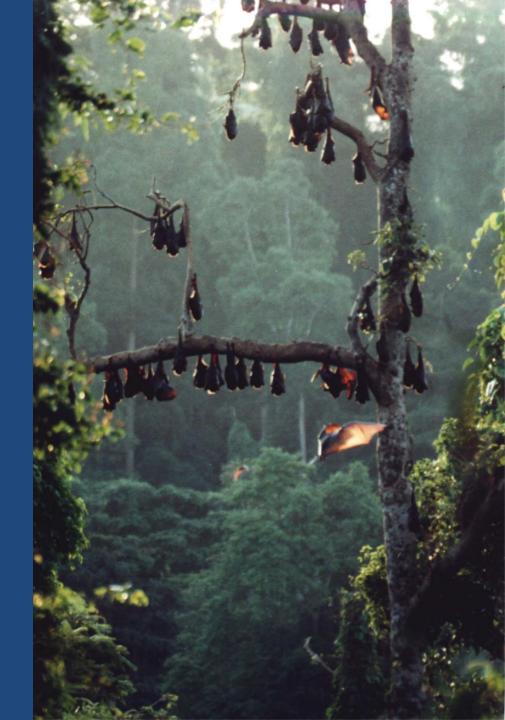

SEABCRU FLYING FOX WORKSHOP

Who, What, Why?

What?

What?

WORKSHOP OBJECTIVES:

1. What is known?
2. Share count experience
3. Standardize count methods
4. Share data

Why?

Why?

Create a network

Establish baselines

Identify priorities

Compare across sites

Provide access to data