
Malaysia is an internationally vital country for the conservation of BATS!!

Malaysia is home to an incredible 125 species of bats - more than 10% of the world total of 1111 species and 40% of all Malaysian mammals.

12 species are only found in Malaysia.

Tragically, a quarter of our Malaysian bats are at some risk of extinction.

Contact: tigga@bu.edu, zubaid@pknisc.cc.ukm.my

Produced by the Malaysian Bat Conservation Research Unit